Invitation Awaits Geneva Meeting

OTTAWA (CP)—The federal government has not yet extended a formal invitation to the big powers to hold a summit meeting in Canada, Prime Minister Diefenbaker said Thursday.

He said he understands that "any determination of the locale would be premature" until after the foreign ministers' conference scheduled for Geneva May 11.

The power installations at Sweden's large hydro station at Harspranget are built in rock 250 feet below ground.

Magistrate's Terms:

No Bleach, No Jail

CHILLIWACK (CP)—A 16-year-old Chilliwack girl can stay out of prison—if she uses less makeup and doesn't bleach her hair.

Those were two conditions imposed by Magistrate Ernest Anderson when he gave her a two-year suspended sentence Wednesday for attempting to break into a business office.

The magistrate also stipulated:

She must obey a 10 p.m. curfew.

She must stay away from her former companions.

She must not be in the company of any males not approved by the probation officer.
